Our Hero's Wishes

Thank you so much for making my late husband's wish for us come true. We had such a good time and made wonderful memories. The weather was rainy the first day but nice and warm the rest of the time. Thank you again for your support.

Sincerely,
United States Army

Winner of The WishU Challenge

"Okay folks, get ready for this one. I've attended lots of events on behalf of VetTix, and I've written thank you notes for all of them, But this one takes the cake! Because of Vet Tix and their partnership with wishU, and the wishU challenge to help fight ALS, I donated and was entered for a chance to win and I won the grand prize of 2 tickets for the NBA Finals game of my choosing.

Unbelievable! I Chose game 3 at Cleveland and got free air fare, game tickets (great venue with a great crowd), and VIP treatment the whole time. Met some of the players, the league commissioner, network folks, etc... I cannot even begin to explain how great a time it was, still can't believe it happened. Our contact with wishU even let us stay a little longer so we could take in some Cleveland sights and an Indians game. It was a trip I'll never forget, all made possible through Vet Tix and wishU.

If ever they post another one of these contests, you have to put in for it. You will not regret it!"

PS - Special thanks out to Adam from wishU for doing all the coordination needed for an outstanding trip. As well as the Cleveland Cavs for sending us a "box of swag"
