

Privacy Policy

Our Privacy Promise to you

Since 2008 our members have trusted Veteran Tickets Foundation (Vet Tix) with their personal information. Whether you are a veteran, donor, volunteer, organization, or community partner our commitment to conduct business honestly and protect your privacy is at the heart of our Privacy Promise.

This policy does not prevent the release of all information required by the Internal Revenue Service, applications to participate in national or state giving campaigns, or other national and state regulation.

What information do we collect?

1. We collect personal information from you when you register on our site such as name, address, e-mail address and service status. We do not collect or keep any financial information or personal identification numbers.
2. We collect demographic information when you request tickets or fill out a survey such as number of people in your family and previous events attended.
You may visit our site and respond to surveys anonymously.

How does Vet Tix use your information?

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

1. To verify your identity and service status. Please Note: Vet Tix does not keep any submitted documents either electronically or on paper. You may verify service through a third-party website www.ID.me, instead of submitted documents to Vet Tix.
2. To personalize your experience: Your information helps us to better respond to your individual needs.
3. To send emails: The email address you provide for your account can be used to send notifications (if you so choose) about events, order processing, and in addition to receiving occasional company news and updates.
4. To improve our website: We continually strive to improve our website processes based on the information and feedback we receive from you. We collect demographic and feedback information to better inform our donors. Please note: Testimonials are posted on our website but display only info you enter. Please see our terms for testimonials.
5. Donor Information: Vet Tix expresses their appreciation to donors by listing the cumulative giving levels on our website and in published document. The information listed only includes the level of cumulative giving, a name, and the company or organization if applicable. Donors that do not wish to have their information posted may be listed as anonymous. Please contact the Vet Tix via e-mail, telephone or by writing for this option.

Does Vet Tix disclose any information to outside parties?

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information.

Some event donors require veteran name and number of guests.

Donors - Vet Tix does not release the names, addresses, telephone numbers, or e-mail addresses of donors to any outside charity or organization for the purpose of solicitation.

Links to Other Websites

We have links to third party events and services on our website. These third party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Cookies

Vet Tix uses cookies to improve your website experience and save your preferences for future visits. Cookies are small files that collect non-personal information that enables websites to recognize your browser to capture and remember certain information. If you do not want your information collected by cookies, you can opt to block them in most browsers. If you block cookies, however, you may lose some website functionality.

Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, Vet Tix has put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. The data base is maintained on a secure server and is not stored on any web site nor is the data base accessible from websites.
